“JOAN OF ARC LISTENING TO THE VOICES”

From a painting by Jules Bastien - Lepage (1848 - 84), French artist, who has exerted a far-reaching and beneficial effect on modern painting. In his mastery of technique, his sense of atmosphere, his handling of perspective and his facility in portraying outdoor scenes he was unequalled among the artists of his time. In this painting, which ranks as one of his masterpieces, he has marvelously depicted the rare spiritual quality in the face of the peasant girl of Domremy who was to redeem France, crown her King, die at the stake and centuries later be canonized as a saint.

Twenty and last in the series of reproductions of notable paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, selected personally for the Mid-Week Pictorial by Dr. Edward Robinson, Director of the Museum.

Vast Purchasing Power

THE annual buying power of the 600,000 purchasers of The New York Times, of which the Rotogravure Section is a part, is many millions of dollars. The homes into which it goes regularly are among the best in the land, the families able to appreciate meritorious offerings and, as a rule, to satisfy most of their buying desires.

Advertisers in The Times Rotogravure Section approach this selective audience in the most favorable circumstances. The long life of advertisements in the Rotogravure Section brings replies to many announcements long after their insertion.

WANAMAKER'S*The Pioneer Radio StoreGUARANTEED
RADIOAn Innovation!*

As in other fields, Wanamaker's, the Pioneer Radio Store, is establishing new standards of service in radio merchandising.

Women in ever increasing numbers are becoming interested in radio through the assurance of Wanamaker quality and service and the Wanamaker guarantee.

The "SLEEPER MONOTROL" is being installed by Wanamaker's on a five-day trial basis.

Expert installation is made without charge. Before leaving the store each set is minutely examined for any possible flaws in material or workmanship. Tubes are perfectly matched and batteries are tested to insure their delivery at full strength.

Our Service, however, goes beyond the mechanical. We will have one of our staff of experienced instructors call at your home in the evening to explain to your household the proper operation and care of the radio. Thus the entire family is equipped to obtain the best results from your set.

The "Sleeper Monotrol" is priced at $206 completely equipped, including headphones and loudspeaker.

Other standard sets carried regularly in stock and bearing our full guarantee include the "Cutting and Washington," the "Ware Neutrodyne" and the various models of "Radiola," ranging in price from $47.50, complete, up.

Attractive terms of payment may be arranged, and —The Wanamaker Guarantee Protects You!

With No Aerial or Ground Connection

It is ready to move with you on May 1st—town or country. No old wires to tear down. No new aerials to rig. No fixed anchorage in any spot or room.

With the Purity and Clarity of Tone

—that you get only through a loop in sets that have been specially built for loop reception. Sweet, liquid, natural and loud or soft as you direct.

With Full Freedom to Rove With You

—through the Summer—on porch or lawn for Summer evening concerts—while riding in your car or idling on some mountain top or beach.

With Exceptional Advantages in Summer

A clearness that you cannot find in sets that bring in all of Summer's static. Just as fine when cool days come again—an all-year installation with no off seasons.

With Unparalleled Simplicity in Tuning

Just one dial to turn. All stations always come in at exactly the same number on that dial. Tuning is instantaneous. There's no "balance" to find. No trouble—no fuss.

With the Chance to Try It Out at Home

A good dealer will place it in your home on trial. That's the only way to judge. Get it in your home—tune it for yourself and then compare.

America's Own Encyclopaedia

The Monumental Achievement of 500 Brilliant Minds Covering All the World's Knowledge

To you The New International Encyclopaedia should stand for a splendid national achievement. It gives to America her own encyclopaedia, world-wide in scope, but written from the American viewpoint and with an understanding of our daily interests and needs.

That is why The New International Encyclopaedia is the standard authority in America's educational institutions, government departments, courts and libraries. That is why The New International Encyclopaedia in your home will be a mark of distinction, evidence that the mental and cultural needs of all the family are adequately provided for.

gives you twenty-four volumes of fascinating, and instructive, stories that cover all the world's knowledge. It carries you through the fields of literature and science, history and religion, industry and art, giving interesting descriptions and splendid photographs of the things you want to know about. And for daily use, it offers practical answers to any questions you may bring to it.

May We Send You This Interesting Booklet?

"THE MAN WHO KNOWS"

It is a profusely illustrated little book containing brief but significant stories of three of history's greatest characters, and, in addition, "A Little Story About You." It is an illuminating book which you will thoroughly enjoy and from which you may get a suggestion of real value in your career. There is as well full information about The New International Encyclopaedia, how this great work has been developed, and what its actual, everyday value will be to you. The coupon brings the booklet with our compliments—no cost or obligation whatever.

See the Set Itself

The New International Encyclopaedia is on display in New York City at McDevitt-Wilson's bookstore, 30 Church Street, at Brentano's, Fifth Avenue and 27th Street, and at Wanamaker's Book Store, Broadway and 9th Street. There you may examine the whole work and get full information about it.
